FLOOR DEBATE

February 13, 2002 LB 1101

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...unusual because there is financial insurance in place under these permits. Some of the old landfills that were investigated did have problems that communities continue to work on, but the eligibility time for that fund has come and gone. And so the point is they feel we've been assured that if there...it's only unknown dumps at this point that could exist that may be a problem. We have no known areas. Maybe you do, but we don't know of any known areas that this money would be needed. And the probability is if there is something out there that we do not know about and it comes to our attention, it probably would go well beyond...or could well go beyond the $4 million that's in this fund to have something to do about it. But we have no known sites at this point. And I...Senator Wickersham has a puzzled look on his face. Mr. Speaker, I'd allow him some time on mine if he wants it.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Wehrbein, your light is on next, followed by Senator Wickersham.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: I just...I just spoke, so I'm willing to turn my time over to him.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Okay. Senator Wickersham, you have Senator Wehrbein's five minutes.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: I'll use somebody's time, is that? Okay, thank you, Mr. Speaker. Well, Senator Wehrbein, this...frankly, this issue came to my attention because of an inquiry from the mayor for the city of Alliance. They're a community that had an old landfill that they had closed. They are experiencing some problems with that closure. It's my understanding that they have been advised by DEQ, despite what you were told in your hearing, that they are potentially eligible for monies from the fund that we're now eliminating. Now I don't know who's got the straight of it here, but it's my understanding from inquiries that my office has made of DEQ that there are officials, if not Mr. Linder there are other officials and I think for the moment maybe I better leave those people unnamed, that believe that Alliance could be eligible, but they're obviously not going to
